Graduate Student Library Research

The UWM Libraries include the general collections (located in open stacks), and a number of distinctive and specialized collections, all housed in the Golda Meir Library building.

The Daniel M. Soref Learning Commons, located on the first floor west wing of the Library, is open 24 hours Sunday through Thursday during the spring and fall semester. The Learning Commons offers group study spaces, quiet study locations, and a Grind café.

ASK A LIBRARIAN (REFERENCE SERVICES)
The Research Help Desk in the Learning Commons is staffed seven days a week. Students may also receive assistance via online chat 24/7/365.

UW SYSTEM BORROWING/INTERLIBRARY LOAN
UW System Borrowing allows students to request materials from any UW System library; Interlibrary Loan, from libraries across the globe.

RESEARCH CONSULTATIONS WITH SUBJECT SPECIALISTS
Students may make appointments to discuss research or learn advanced search strategies.

DATA SERVICES
Individual consultations on data management for your research, and data management planning and training.

DIGITAL COMMONS
UWM Digital Commons, a showcase for faculty and graduate student scholarship, provides long-term preservation and worldwide accessibility.

REFWORKS
Refworks is an online tool that manages citations, creates bibliographies, and imports references from databases.

DISSEXTIONS & THESES GLOBAL
Student may access online full text UWM dissertations and theses and those at other leading institutions worldwide.

DEDICATED QUIET STUDY
Quiet study spaces are located throughout the Golda Meir Library building, and graduate students have an option to request a study carrel.

GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION SYSTEMS
GIS assistance is available to obtain data for visualization, analysis, or any kind of digital spatial project.

DIGITAL HUMANITIES LAB
The DH Lab is an interdisciplinary, collaborative space that brings together faculty, academic staff, and graduate students.

DIGITAL COLLECTIONS
Digital Collections at the UWM Libraries include over 140,000 photographic images, maps, and books drawn from the collections of the American Geographical Society Library, Archives, Special Collections, and the Curriculum Collection.

2311 East Hartford Avenue, Milwaukee, WI 53211
uwm.edu/libraries

An online library research guide for current graduate students can be found at guides.library.uwm.edu/gradstudents