How can the library enable your academic success?
What do You want to know about what we do to help you?

What do you want to know about the library?
How has using a library helped you before? (either a public library or when you were in grade school or as an undergraduate)
WE HAVE THE TOOLS.

BUILDING
- Open 24/5
- Weekend Hours
- So many books
- Equipment check-out
- Special Events
- Scriptorium (for dissertators)
- The Grind Coffeeshop

ONLINE
- Constantly accessible
- Research Databases
- Full-text articles
- eBooks
- Help Guides
- Ask-a-Librarian
- Citation Management (refworks)
WE HAVE THE PEOPLE.

Find out about Resources for Online Students with Kristin Miller Woodward.

Learn About publishing in an Open Access journal with Svetlana Korolev, Science Librarian.

Put your research in the Institutional Repository with Ann Hanlon, Head of Digital Initiatives.

Explore Special Collections with Max Yela, Special Collections Librarian.

Use Primary Sources and Archives with Abi Nye, Research and Instruction Archivist.

Use Geospatial Information Systems (GIS) to map data with Stephen Appel, GIS Specialist.
Engage your librarian

I am here for you!

Carrie Wade
414.229.4279
wadecg@uwm.edu